

All Everybody (Now)

Vers:

Everybody needs somebody,
someone who want's you too.

but we must love to be loved.

and that's the golden rule.

Everybody got plans, but now we must understand,

that you don't need no plan to be part of di bigger plan. Word!

Everybody stamps everybody, everybody is a brand but nobody understands. You need money on the bank. That you take from the bank to make money for the bank, thats cray!

But that's the way how they rule,
how we reproduce the power in use

we always a pay, we all everybody
serve the man with the masterplan.

Chorus:

We share the same vibe!

We All Everybody, part of the same tribe,
We All Everybody.

Out of many we must build, all everybody.
One for all and all for everyone!

Vers:

Everybody knows already, so let's jump right in. Everybody must act, as if they could resist to sin. But you must admit to lie, if you wanna speak the truth, so everybody's talking falsly now nobody plays the the blues. yeah I'm talking to you. Get in the mood. Call everybody.
Step to the groove. Let's make a move.
stay in the loop. Bring them all together unite the group. We Are ONE!

One love one heart.

One of a kind even if we're apart.

We always a pay. We all everybody,

serve the man with the masterplan.

Chorus:

We share the same vibe!

We All Everybody,

part of the same tribe, We All everybody.

Out of many we must build, all everybody.

One for all and all for everyone!

C-Part:

I can't help myself! Can you hear my call?

Lets stand apart together. Together we stand tall.

For all everybody, cause everyone is all.

For every woman and man it's time to make your stand.... all everybody..
