

PILGRIMS OF TOMORROWLAND

Vers 1:

Now Listen up and beware.

We hit the stage so be there.

And we got something to share so you better take care.

People crying. People dying. People gettin' chained in iron.

Runnin' from a global threat, searchin' for a silver lining. We get blinded. But gotta stay open minded. Remind it. Cause it can't be rewinded.

It's high time to shout it out. Mic check. Turn me loud.

Spread the word! We must unite a global crowd.

Planet first. The balance is disturbed. Everyday for Future, till everyone's alert.

Like You - inna di background. How you like my sound? If you wanna get down, meet me on the playground. Make a step straight ahead. You can nod or shake your head, but only if you're down with that I offer you a bonus lap. Focus that. The bloke is back. Now you go ahead and share di track...

Ey! It's time to act. Ey! We already late. Ey!

Mother Earth We A-Must Regenerate!

Chorus:

We are the pilgrims. We are the first generation.

We soil di ground, planting roots for the digital nation.

For free education in every nation.

It' s too much frustration inna di globalisation.

Vers 2:

Now We a-must reveal the lies. Science for a better life? Why they have copyrights, for something that's alive?

Playground planet earth. How much is it a-worth?

We'll find it out and wreck it down.

Don't rage against refugees. Rage against the machines. We are all human beings and no number on a screen.

In the global cash flow, it's all about growth.

They attacked iraq for some dirty petrol.

If united states can not unite with nations, how can they be a force of democratization? Ey! We Are the first generation. Ey! The Re-Generation.

Chorus:

We are di pilgrims. We are di first generation.
We soil di ground, planting roots for the digital nation. For free education, in every nation.
It's too much frustration inna di globalisation.

C-Part:

Ey! It's time to act. Ey! Before it's too late. Ey!
Mother Earth We A-Must Regenerate!
Settle Down. Settle Down. Settle Down.
Soil di ground. Soil di ground. Soil di ground.
We are di first very first generation, to accomplish the regeneration.

Chorus:

We are di pilgrims. We are di first generation.
We soil the ground, planting roots for the digital nation. For free education, in every nation.
It's too much frustration inna di globalisation...

We are di pilgrims. We are di first generation.
We soil di ground, planting roots for the digital nation. For free education, in every nation.
It's too much frustration inna di globalisation...

We are di pilgrims.
We soil di ground, planting roots for the digital nation. For free education.
It's too much frustration inna di globalisation

We are di pilgrims.
We soil di ground, planting roots for the digital nation. For free education.
We the Re-Generation.
